Shot by Companion—Mansons to Dedicate New Hall.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Williamsburg, Va., July 6.—Joe March, colored boy, was shot and instantly killed by a companion Monday. Another boy was handling a rifle, which was accidentally discharged, the bullet passing through the heart of the March boy. The family lives in James City county.

Chickahominy Lodge of Masons will be moved from New Kent to Toano, and the new hall in the Stephenson building at that place will be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies on July 21. Among the speakers expected are Governor Mann, former Governor A. J. Montague and Rabbi Calisch, of Richmond.

Professor H. M. McManaway, who resigned as principal of the Toano High School, will be succeeded by Professor Marvin Malden, of Shawneetown. It is reported that Mrs. Rosabelle Hohmann, wife of a farmer living in York county, near this city, has been located in her former home at McKeesport, Pa. The woman disappeared from her home on June 24, but her husband did not report the matter until July 1. The family has only lived here six months.

San Antonio, Tex., July 6.—R. E. Murray, a former plumber, merchant of this city, but of late a resident of California, was killed in a railroad accident at Truckee, Cal., yesterday. The body will be brought here for burial.
